

The regular meeting of the Frostburg Lions was held Wednesday, February 13, 2008, at the Acropolis Restaurant with President Bill Munck presiding. There were twelve members in attendance. Guest speaker, Ibrahim Chapeyama, gave an interesting talk about his native country of South Africa. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were approved as given.

Under communications, the club approved a payment of $86.40 for district dues for 24 members to Cabinet Treasurer, Don Peck. Cabinet Secretary, Bob Leece, sent us information on pre registration for the District 22 Convention. The club approved sending the same amount for diabetes research as we did last year. The Middletown Lion Charter Night will be April 14th. The club approved paying the state tax on our building. The club voted not to donate to the Vision Walk for Blindness in Baltimore because we donate to vision through Lions programs. The Lions Club International Convention will be in Thailand this summer.

Under committee reports and old business, vision-screening chairman, Edge Deuel, reported we screened 10 children at the Methodist Church bridge program. Also, we completed a screening at Georges Creek for the Judy Center. He reported we would be doing a screening at Frost in the near future. The Oakland Lions may be starting this program. Lion Sue reported she had not heard from Moorefield Lions whether they were interested in the program. She would check. There was some discussion of doing a screening at the mall for children who do not attend day care. Visitation chairman, Leon Fatkin, said three members would visit LaVale Lions next Tuesday. Lions Bill and Sue would attend the Zone meeting on Monday. Glasses chairman, Jake Failinger, reported that three people had gone to WalMart to be tested for glasses. (Mr&Mrs Tudowski and Mr. Lashbaugh). I reported that we have our intern selected for the game and I would be in touch with her. Lion Bill suggested we take our banner to the game to use as a backdrop for pictures of the MVPS.

Under new business, Tina Gormely was voted to be a member of our club. Lorian Deuel is her sponsor. Lion Sue reported we can buy tote bags through Lions International for $6.95 no action was taken at this time. President Bill announced that he would have 50-50 tickets for the district convention at the next meeting.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.
