

All-star game Sunday

Md., W.Va. seniors to square off at FSU

FROM STAFF REPORTS

FROSTBURG — The 29th annual Frostburg Lions/McDonald's All-Star Basketball Classic, featuring seniors from area Maryland and West Virginia high schools, is scheduled for Sunday at Frostburg State University's Bobcat Arena.

The girls game tips off at 2 p.m., followed by the boys game at 4. Team rosters are listed in today's Scoreboard page.

Last year, Maryland swept the games, with the girls winning 54-44 and the boys rolling to a 113-69 victory.

• This year's boys game features two league scoring champions in David Hobel of Mountain Ridge and Kamran Khataian of Bishop Walsh.

Hobel led the area and Appalachian Mountain Athletic Conference in scoring, averaging 22 points per game for the year and 20.6 in the conference for Mountain Ridge. Khataian led Bishop Walsh to its first City championship since 1996, averaging a league-best 23.7 points per game. He also made 17 three-point goals in the four City games.

The West Virginia boys boast four Keyser players, including Preston Hartman, who averaged a double-double with 15.6 points and 11.1 rebounds per game, and Jeremy Green, who averaged 15.2 points and 7.2 rebounds.

• In the girls game, DeTonia DeGross, who led Allegany to a pair of league championships and a return trip to the state tournament, is one of four Campers playing their final high school games.

DeGross averaged 11.6 points, 4.5 steals and 4.1 assists in helping Alco to City and AMAC titles. Among the others are Lindsey Fisher of Fort Hill, who averaged 14.7 points, 6.5 assists and 3.3 steals, and Danielle McGinnis of Mountain Ridge, who averaged 11.4 points, seven rebounds and 3.4 steals.

On the West Virginia side, local fans have a chance to see East Hardy's Molly Look, a four-year standout who averaged 15.6 points, 6.5 rebounds and 5.1 assists this year. Britany Jones averaged 16.5 points and 7.2 points at Union.

PREP
BASKETBALL