

Frostburg Lions continue grant

Financial support of Wilmer Eye Institute will go on

FRONTSPRING — The Frostburg Lions Club is continuing its financial support of the Wilmer Eye Institute, John Maguire President, the Lions Club has been providing the past 2 funding years of more than $1,000.

"Last year we received a grant of $1,000 and this year we received a grant of $1,000," said Maguire.

The grant, provided by the Wilmer Eye Institute, will be provided to the club to support the eye clinic at Wilmer.

The Wilmer Eye Institute is the Wilmer Eye Institute and the Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community.

"There is a great need for eye care in the community," said Maguire. "We are committed to providing eye care to the community." The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community.

the club of eye care services. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community.

"The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community."

"Support of Lions Club is essential to the Wilmer Eye Institute. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community."

"The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community."

"The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community."

Frostburg Lions President Bill Maguire, center, presents a grant check to the Wilmer Eye Institute, John Maguire, right, and another man, left.

Maguire, 70, is president of the Wilmer Eye Institute. He is a member of the Wilmer Eye Institute. He is a member of the Wilmer Eye Institute.

The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community. The Wilmer Eye Institute is a non-profit organization that provides eye care to the community.