

ble-double with 11.7 points and 10.4 rebounds per game.

Brad Davis, of Union and Eric Wamsley, of Tucker County, head the West Virginia team.

Davis was third in the area in scoring and led the Potomac Valley Conference Division A with an 18.5 average, and also pulled in rebounds per game.

Wamsley, who helped power Tucker County to Class A state tournament averaged 15.6 points, rebounds, and a conference high 5.5 assists.

Maryland won last year game, 98-81.

Hungry for some fun? Buy this...

CUMBERLAND TIMES-NEWS | SATURDAY, APRIL

standouts to one more time

al McDonald's/Frostburg Lions ssic Sunday at Frostburg State was among the area leaders in scoring shooting and three-point goals.

Fratz had the best foul shooting percentage of any area player — girl or boy — hitting 53 tries for 86.7 percent. She averaged points and was ninth in the area with 31 three-point goals.

The Maryland team also features Mount Ridge's Holly Williams, who averaged

