

Frostburg Lions seeking donations for auction

FOR THE FROSTBURG EXPRESS

FROSTBURG — The Frostburg Lions Club is seeking donations for its upcoming kitchen sink auction to be held Sept. 15 at the Frostburg Armory.

"Folks have been really good to us so far," said Lion Susan Munck, auction coordinator. "We have received a number of great donations."

Munck said the Lions are especially looking for "some older things, old license plates, souvenirs, local memorabilia, and antique documents

one to visit the Lions Web site at www.geocities.com/lions, where a current list of auction items is posted.

WELCOME

to the best darn auction

this side of HY 30 the Frostburg Lions Club
"KITCHEN SINK AUCTION".

Every item for this auction was donated to us & your purchases will help to fund our projects here in Frostburg

Our programs include

- Vision Grant Program
- Scholarships
- Vision Screening For Children
- Little League Ball
- Beall Elementary "Tower of Treasure"
- Recycle Used Eye Glasses

and other programs to help our community.

We appreciate your attendance here today. We hope you have a good time & find items that you want. This auction is not like other benefit auctions you may have attended. This is your classic "junk auction" and "estate auction" rolled into one. Lots of hidden treasures, items for resale, & assorted goodies

If you would like to be a part of the Frostburg Lions Team and be behind the scenes for next year's auction, talk to any "green shirt" Lion, we'd love to have you as a member of the world's largest service organization

Grab your bid number, use it frequently, support our sponsors, but most of all HAVE FUN TODAY
