Under committee reports, Youth Activity chairperson, Lee Abraham reported on the treasure tower we are sponsoring for Beall Elementary's behavior support program. Visitation chairperson, Leon Fatkin, tentatively scheduled visiting the Lonaconing club on October 15th and Potomac Valley at their first meeting in November. President Bill suggested we have some people attend the Oldtown Lions charter nite as we helped charter that club. He also stated that two Members of the Tri Towns Lions will attend our next meeting. The program will be Eric Delaney reporting on the Mary Stevens Fund.

Under old business, Lion aprons are in at a cost of $10.50. President Bill has them. President Bill and Visitation Chairperson Leon attended the zone meeting at Tri Towns. The next zone meeting will be in Grantsville. At our Charter Nite in October President Bill would like to honor former members of our club from the 50s and 60s. Lion Jake will contact as many as possible.

On September 22nd we will sell hot dogs at FSU for their Appalachian Heritage Festival. We will have our chicken barbecue on October 20th which is FSU's homecoming. Lion Jake will contact Kitzmiller about the grill. We will sell 450 chickens at $5 a chicken. Final plans were also discussed for the auction that was held on September 15th.

Under new business, President Bill suggested changing the term chairman to coordinator. The club decided chairperson would be better. The Governor's social will be Oct. 6th at Rocky Gap, cost $30 a person. President Bill has a sight first DVD which we will need a player to use it for a program. Our bank suggested we have three signatures for our checking account with two signatures required on a check. Phyllis Thomas was approved as a new member and welcomed to the club. The highway cleanup project was tabled to a future time. The club needs a safety deposit box to store our important documents. Lion Jake is going to contact the manager at 1st United to obtain a box and see if they would wave the fee.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned
