

The regular meeting of the Frostburg Lions was held Wednesday, September 26, 2007 at the Acropolis Restaurant with President Bill Munck presiding. There were eleven members in attendance and one guest, Eric Delaney, administrator of the Mary Stevens Fund who gave an informative report on how the fund is being managed. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were approved as given.

There were no communications.

Under committee reports, Membership chairman, Sue Munck, reported we have four prospective members. Two approached us at the Appalachian festival and Lion Jake has asked two other prospective members. Program chairman, Lorian Deuel, discussed our future programs through the end of December.

Under old business, President Bill reported we made some money on the auction and the Appalachian Festival. Club treasurer Cindy will report on the actual amount at the next meeting. He also reported we have hot dogs left over. Charter Nite will be October 10, 2007, spouses are welcome. Also, a picture will be in the paper.

The garden club is planting flowers around our signs at RT. 36 and Midlothian Road. They will add top soil and the mulch around the flowers. Lion Leon will attend the Governor's social on October 6th. President Bill announced the He and Sue donated a $25 gift certificate to Target for the silent auction from our club.

Under new business, President Bill announced Lions International teamed with Eye Care America and October is World Blindness month. We have some brochures and they will send us more. The club has sent Glacoma cards to Beall Elem. to give out to parents. We also donated over 30 stuffed animals to the Frostburg Police Dept. to give to children. The Club voted unanimously to give our picnic tables in the building to the Frostburg Rec Dept. This will be done next spring.

The club approved glasses for Diana Sarver who is disabled.

As there was no further business, the meeting was adjourned
