

The regular meeting of the Frostburg Lions was held Wednesday, October 24, 2007 at the Acropolis Restaurant with President Bill Munck presiding. There were ten members in attendance and one prospective lion, Margie Nelson. This meeting was District Governor Barbara McKenney's official visit. Her husband Ron, Cabinet Secretary Bob Leece, and Region Chairman Steve Finger, accompanied her. The Secretary's and Treasurer's reports were approved as given.

In the business portion of the meeting, President Munck announced he will send Lion Christmas Cards to those businesses and others who supported us during the past year.

Under committee reports, eyeglass chairman, Jake Failing, reported the following people needed help to purchase glasses; Paul Brenneman, Kathy Heckman, Melissa Cutter, and James Booth. All were approved.

Lion Jake also reported the garden club is working on the flowers at our signs entering the city. The Low Vision Research Foundation banquet will be at Failing's Hotel Gunter on November 10th at 6:00 PM. Grantsville will host the Zone meeting at Penn Alps on November 1st.

Under old business, the club voted to send the Kitzmiller Lions $150 for their building fund for providing the trailer for our chicken barbecue.

Under new business, Joe Cook was approved as a new member his sponsor is Jake Failing. President Bill announced that Eye Care America will provide free eye tests for seniors and those with diabetes and glaucoma. Lion Leon announced that the Potomac Valley Shrimp Feed will be held November 6th. He needs the names and money of those members who wish to attend this meeting

Attendance: Leon Fatkin, Sue Munck, Bill Munck, Cindy Powers, Delores Chabot, Elmer Smith, Joe Mills, Edge Deuel, Lorian Deuel, and Jake Failing
