

12-2-81

Bell Ringers Aid Family Services

FROSTBURG — The Frostburg Lions Club will conduct their annual Bell Ringing Saturday for Frostburg Family Services according to Wayne Jenkins, chairman. All donations will be turned over to the services for use at Christmas.

Members of the club and their wives are asked to work from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

at three locations according to the following schedule: at Murphy's from 10 to 11 a.m. John Duncan and Alan Sowers; 11 a.m. to noon, Joseph Davis and Alan Ward; noon to 1 p.m. Ron Fautz and Kenneth Kutler; 1 to 2 p.m. Carl Whitaker; 2 to 3 p.m., Joseph Paletta and Delbert Payton; 3 to 4 p.m., Roy Troutman and James Cotton; 4 to 5 p.m., Terry McKenzie and Larry Tummino.

Working at the A&P from 10 to 11 a.m. will be Francis Fatkin; 11 a.m. to noon, Michael LeMay and James Vought; noon to 1 p.m. Jack Byrd and Gerard Calhoun; 1 to 2 p.m. Paul E. Cairl and Jessie Jacobs; 2 to 3 p.m. Russell Carder and Albert Miller; 3 to 4 p.m. Paul W. Cairl and Edgerton Deuel; 4 to 5 p.m. Robert Robeson and Kermit Falinger.

Working at the Heck's Plaza from 10 to 11 a.m. will be Jack Burner and Wilbert Railey; 11 a.m. to noon, Emmett Smith and James Cyr; noon to 1 p.m., Earl Hopkins and Lou Seidel; 1 to 2 p.m. Robert Edwards and Thomas Edwards; 2 to 3 p.m. Joseph Mills and J. Bernard Rafferty; 3 to 4 p.m. William Sluss and George Griffith; 4 to 5 p.m. Wayne Jenkins and Frank Skidmore.

Those who cannot work the scheduled assigned is asked to contact Mr. Jenkins.