

Frostburg Lions award nearly $500 cash prize

FOR THE CUMBERLAND TIMES-NEWS

FROSTBURG — The Frostburg Lions Club recently awarded a cash prize of nearly $500 in a Christmas raffle sponsored by the organization, the first in many years.

Lions members gathered at Frostburg Pizza II for a night of food and fun capped off with the drawing, according to Lions President Bill Munck.

Frostburg resident Tami Grimes was the grand prize winner, purchasing the winning ticket at Bond Home Center.

The club will use its portion of the proceeds to help fund programs and projects in the Mountain City area.

Residents interested in Frostburg Lions programs should call (301) 687-0212.

Frostburg Lions award Christmas raffle prize

FOR THE CUMBERLAND TIMES-NEWS

FROSTBURG — The Frostburg Lions Club recently awarded a cash prize of nearly $500 in a Christmas raffle sponsored by the organization, the first in many years.

Lions members gathered at Frostburg Pizza II for a night of food and fun capped off with the drawing, according to Lions President Bill

Munck.

Frostburg resident Tami Grimes was the grand prize winner, purchasing the winning ticket at Bond Home Center.

The club will use its portion of the proceeds to help fund programs and projects in the Mountain City area.

Residents interested in Frostburg Lions Club programs should call (301) 687-0212.

FROSTBURG EXPRESS

Funding the gift of sight

Lions District Governor Bob Disinger, left, accepts a check from Lion Bill Munck of Frostburg Lions Club with Lion Bob Bullock looking on. Grant money from the Frostburg Lions Club will be used to help fund the Lions Low Vision Center at the Wilmer Eye Institute, Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. Lions of Allegany and Garrett counties raised more than $5,000 recently for the Low Vision Center.